The educational and training categories above are determined by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. They determine the Standard Occupational Classification that apply to these 11 categories. The Idaho Research and Analysis Bureau then combines similar training and educational categories in order to form seven educational and training categories and calculates a new average wage by applying the appropriate weights to each category according to the employment totals of each occupation. Idaho also uses a statistical aging technique to improve the currency of the data. Therefore, the figures disclosed on this document and official BLS figures may slightly differ due to these varying statistical techniques. While 2007 is the release date, data are culled from 2004, 2005 and 2006 surveys. This three-year sample is aged to reflect wages and educational levels in early 2007.
